

I-JOBS
Exhibit 5
TITLE TO PROPERTY

The Indian Creek Nature Center owns the property that will be the site of the new building. No acquisition costs are anticipated. The land is within a conservation easement, but the easement agreement allows the organization to choose five acres for construction. At this point the remainder of the land will be forever protected from development.